Thanks Kimi, for inviting Kelsey to some EJ-related meetings. That's fantastic. We're encouraging clerks to reach out to attorneys and express their interest in sitting-in on meetings pertaining to areas of interest.

Hi,
FYI, Kelsey asked if she could work on an EJ issue – I don't know if there is anything to pull out as a legal research topic right now (will give it some thought), but since she asked to sit in on meetings even if there isn't a specific issue, I sent her the information below.
Thanks, Kimi

Hi Kelsey,
So good to hear from you, welcome!! Great that you're interested in EJ work. The DB EJ analysis is very interesting –

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)	Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)	Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

I will give more thought to any discreet legal issues, but in the meantime would be happy to share the underlying documents with you and invite you to our meeting next week with Corbin (the Region's EJ lead in the RA's office) and Valois (the DB UIC staff lead) to discuss the RTC and revisions to our analysis.

Here is the draft EJ Analysis that we put out for comment:
https://www.epa.gov/sites/production/files/2016-11/documents/dewey-burdock_ej_rod_ej_v5.pdf

Attached are the table of EJ comments received and our current draft of a response to comments. Our next meeting is Tuesday at noon. If you have a chance to review the documents beforehand and would like to talk, just let me know. I'm off until Monday.

Thanks and look forward to working with you!
Kimi

Hi Kimi,

I was just on the call about Dewey Burdock and was reminded that I wanted to email you about possible EJ opportunities this summer. I am very interested in EJ issues and the law that currently functions with them so if you ever have a project an intern could help with, or even would not mind inviting me into any meetings where an intern would be allowed I would really appreciate the opportunity to work with you.

Thank you,
